LITANY OF CELEBRATION FOR IMMANUEL

Leader: We recognize the faith, dedication and courage in forming a congregation here 59 years ago.

People: We pray that we might have the same kind of courage and faith.

Leader: We recognize the physical, mental and spiritual efforts that have kept this Christian community alive and united.

People: It is our intention to build upon that effort and to give ourselves, that this community may live and breathe for years to come.

Leader: With thanks for the buildings we have built, for the pastors we have called and followed, and for the hundreds of faithful members who have called this their church home.

People: We give thanks and commit ourselves in every way to maintain, to build, to uphold what is needed in order to carry out our task.

Leader: There have been many who have come here for spiritual guidance, who have brought their children for instruction, who have come for baptism and profession and marriage and services of memory.

People: We recognize that this is not the only place for spiritual life in our community, but it is the one which we love and in whose life we rejoice.

ALL: We pledge ourselves to continue the life of Christ here that others may know of His care, and may find the peace that is beyond our understanding. In future years, may we still look to this church for help in carrying burdens and bringing love to a selfish world. In the living name of Christ Our Lord. Amen.

THANK YOU from Immanuel's Stewardship Committee

Thank you all for your continued and consistent support of Immanuel through your generous financial giving. Your commitment to fulfilling stewardship pledges has been so reinforcing during our time of separation. We are fortunate to have the stability and balance in our budget that has enabled programming and outreach to continue even during the shuttering of the church during Covid-19.

Look for the unveiling of the 2020 Stewardship Campaign throughout October with regular updates on ways to offer time, talents and resources to sustain our church family.

Together we continue to enrich and grow in service honoring our faith in God and his many blessings. Thank you again for your ongoing support!

When Moses Climbed Mt. Sinai

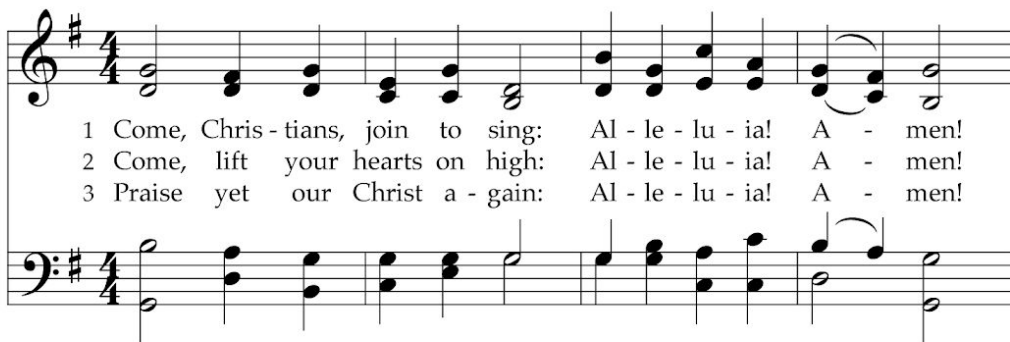

- 1) When Moses climbed Mt. Sinai,
He left his people's sight.
Alone with God he spoke there
For forty days and nights.
Ere long the people wondered,
"Where did our leader go?
And is our God still with us?
And how are we to know?"

- 2) The people turned to Aaron,
Consumed by doubt and fear,
"Make us a thing to worship
So we can know God's here!"
The anxious priest was troubled,
But gave them what they sought,
And melting down their jewelry
A golden calf was wrought.

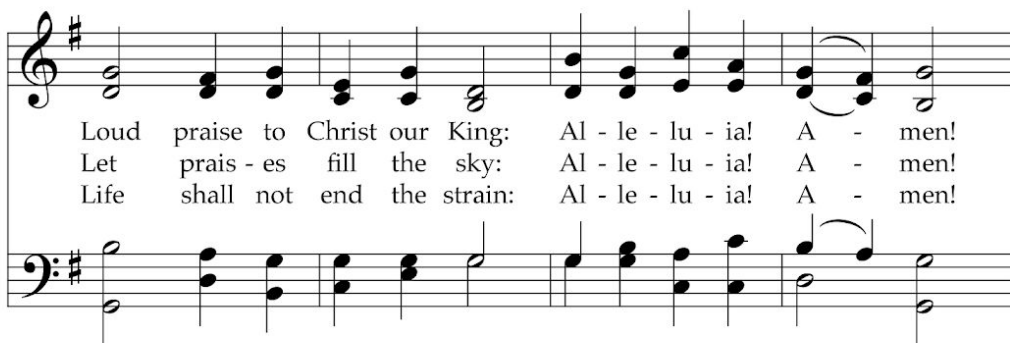

- 3) When life seems full of worry,
And well laid plans awry,
We long for reassurance
That you, God are nearby.
That's when the lure of idols,
Like wealth and pow'r and strife
Can tempt us to devotion
To things that don't bring life.

- 4) So Word of God incarnate,
Please come to us, we pray.
Free us from our addictions,
And lead us in Christ's way.
Help us to choose compassion
And stand for what is right.
Give us the grace to trust You
In every troubling plight.
