Growing Together in the Way of Jesus

On the parable of the Good Samaritan: "I imagine that the first question the priest and Levite asked was: 'If I stop to help this man, what will happen to me?' But by the very nature of his concern, the good Samaritan reversed the question: 'If I do not stop to help this man, what will happen to him?'"

PRAYER OF APPROACH & CONFESSION

God of Grace and God of Glory,
As we begin this Lenten walk towards the cross,
We give You thanks that we do not journey alone.
We praise You for Your presence embodied among us In the people who respond when we ask for a helping hand,
And in the ways we can provide that hand.
We praise You for love made plain
In the kind word and the brave stand,
The hard conversation and the deep listening,
The open heart and the healing outreach.
We praise You for ways in which Your presence
Comes to us beyond human contact
And the way such Divine encounters make us better humans.
We confess in the midst of the challenges and changes of life
That we do not always make choices
That reflect Your best intention for us.
We can and do get mired in ego, fear, and resentment.
Forgive us and lead us out of
Self-preoccupation into selfless acts of service
Which demonstrate that Your Divine Love
Is at work in and through us.

SILENT PRAYER

WORDS OF ASSURANCE

Leader: Hear the sound of love poured out.

(The baptismal font is filled. As Christians, we are united in community through the waters of Baptism. Water is poured as a reminder that God claims, forgives, and renews us to live out God's love as a community of faith.)

Leader: O Lord, open our lips.

People: And our mouths will declare Your praise.

Leader: Praise the Lord.

People: The Lord's name be praised.

GLORIA PATRI

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end.
Amen, Amen.
