Growing Together in the Way of Jesus

“I have been driven many times upon my knees by the overwhelming conviction that I had no where else to go. My own wisdom and that of all about me seemed insufficient for that day.”

— Abraham Lincoln

PRAYER OF APPROACH AND CONFESSION

Rev. Strednak Singer

Almighty and All-Vulnerable God,

As we walk this pilgrim way

We give You thanks for the way Your love takes shape among us:

In the people who respond when we pick up the phone

And say, "I can't handle this!"

In the inner strength we find when we are driven to our knees in prayer,

In the many opportunities we have to be part of embodying

Compassion and justice.

We acknowledge before You and ourselves today

That we do not always walk humbly with You.

We think less of ourselves rather than thinking of ourselves less.

We fail to follow where You lead, especially when that path challenges us.

We too often avoid the work of love and compassion that is set before us

In the need of a neighbor or the hard conversation.

But Your everlasting arms are still there,

Beckoning us to trust and rely upon You and to walk in Your Way.

SILENT PRAYER

WORDS OF ASSURANCE

Leader: Hear the sound of love poured out.
(The baptismal font is filled. As Christians, we are united in community through the waters of Baptism. Water is poured as a reminder that God claims, forgives, and renews us to live out God's love as a community of faith.)

Leader: O Lord, open our lips.

People: And our mouths will declare Your praise.

Leader: Praise the Lord.

People: The Lord's name be praised.

GLORIA PATRI

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end.
Amen, Amen.

SEALING OF THE WORD IN COMMUNION

THE INVITATION TO THE TABLE

Rev. Strednak Singer & Rev. Fulp-Eickstaedt

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

You are invited to share bread and juice or wine in your home. Together we remember that God's table knows no boundaries and that we are connected through this meal to one another and to saints across time and space.
