PRAYER OF APPROACH & CONFESSION		Rev. Fulp-Eickstaedt
	Holy One, so often in life, We want to know the ending before we begin. We long to read the last chapter first, To know how our stories will end, So that we might know exactly what moves to make And where to place our feet next. You remind us in scripture this morning To begin at the beginning. You teach us that miracles Are not always about what we might expect-- Healing, life-altering transformations-- But are sometimes as simple as the invitation to celebration And to rejoicing in community. Today, God, help us to begin at the beginning. Help us embrace a fresh start And to focus our energy in the here and now, Present to these lives that You have created and called good. Guide us in relinquishing to You our missed steps and false starts, Our wandering, our wounding, and our woundedness. May this prayer be the first step of a new way,

Grounded in Your Way.
Hear our prayers...

SILENT PRAYER                      WORDS OF ASSURANCE

Leader:    Hear the sound of love poured out.

(The baptismal font is filled. As Christians, we are united in community through the waters of Baptism. Water is poured as a reminder that God claims, forgives, and renews us to live out God's love as a community of faith.)

Leader:    O Lord, open our lips.

People:    And our mouths will declare Your praise.

Leader:    Praise the Lord.

People:    The Lord's name be praised.

GLORIA PATRI

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end.
Amen, Amen.
